Bellerive Trust Limited Head of Legal named in UK Top 35 Under 35

Guernsey – 10 September 2018 – Bellerive Trust Limited (BTL) Head of Legal Kit Hobbs has been listed as one of the top young private client practitioners in the British Isles in the latest eprivateclient UK Top 35 Under 35 list for 2018.

Kit has successfully launched and runs the legal function at BTL after joining the firm 18 months ago offering a wide range of legal support and fulfilling a broad role at the ambitious and growing Guernsey-based trust and fiduciary business.

The eprivateclient UK Top 35 Under 35 is designed to identify, recognise, introduce and promote the rising stars of the private client profession across the UK and Crown dependencies. Kit's award is on top of his inclusion in the inaugural eprivateclient list of Channel Islands Top 35 Under 35 list of private client practitioners announced in June 2018.

Wayne Bertrand, Managing Director of BTL, said: "Kit has quickly established himself as a vital part of the BTL business, overhauling our legal function and offering key support across all areas of our multi-faceted trust and fiduciary business. Since his arrival, Kit has been an important resource for the business in an increasingly risk-sensitive and regulatory-focused arena. We are pleased to see that he has been recognised within the private client profession as a young leader at a national level."

Kit said: "I am delighted to have been nominated and selected for this award which demonstrates the recognition of the hard work which the team at BTL have put in for the growth of their trust and fiduciary business since their launch in early 2016 and for the establishment of its legal function within the industry."

BTL is an independent business with roots dating back over thirty years in the financial services industry in the Bailiwick of Guernsey.
